DESTROYED BY BAIT MONITORS OFF B

ONDON, November 26,-(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)-Reports from France last night say that there is conclusive evidence that the Germans contemplate making another desperate effort to get through the Allies' line to the French

They are bringing up re-inforcements and moving up heavy guns. The Allies are fully prepared for any movement upon the part of the enemy.

SIX GERMAN SUBMARINES DESTROYED

The German plans had been greatly delayed and interfered with by the events of the past few days.

The naval bembardment of Zeabrugge resulted in the destruc tion of six German submarines by the fire of the British monitors These vessels had been brought overland and were being assembled for launching from the Belgian coast, to be used in raiding the Allies' ports and fleets.

ZEEBRUGGE NAVAL BASE DEMOLISHED

The naval base which the Germans were extablishing at Zeebrugge was demolished and the German artillery which attempted Border Patrol To Be Increased to return the fine of the monitors was silenced.

Co-operating with the navy, the Allies' forces have practically cleared almost the entire Belgian coast of Germans, and for the past twenty-four hours there have been on infantry attacks between Ypres and the sea.

Five miles northeast of Ypres the Ailles have made an advance at Langemarch according to the official report from Paris yesterday.

BRITISH INDIAN TROOPS ARE ACTIVE

The British Indian troops were also reported to have recaptured their trenches near La Bassee from which they had been dislodged the previous evening, capturing three German officers, one hundred prisoners, one cannon and three machine guns.

The situation is reported quiet along the line from La Bassec to Soissons, and the Allies to be making slight progress near Berry-au-Bac and in Argonne.

Berlin announces officially that there is no change in the western situation, except some slight progress around Arras.

The presence of cholera among the Germans at Antwerp is reported.
